PREFACE

The monthly Labour Force Report, Malaysia, presents the statistics of labour force, employment, and unemployment obtained from the Labour Force Survey (LFS). The implementations of the LFS are based on the guidelines and recommendations of the International Labour Organization (ILO) with reference to the Surveys of Economically Active Population, Employment, Unemployment and Underemployment: An ILO Manual on Concepts and Methods.

The labour force statistics are used as a vital input for labour market analysis, policy formulation as well as planning, implementing, and monitoring programmes particularly related to human resource development. These statistics also serve as an essential reference to researchers, economists, academicians, private sector, and individuals in research related to employment and the labour market.

The Labour Force Report for January 2022 describes the labour supply situation as the country entered the various phases of the National Recovery Plan (NRP). The report also elaborates on the month-on-month changes to examine the immediate effects of the NRP to rejuvenate the economy while containing the spread of COVID-19. Users are advised to interpret the monthly statistics with caution since they are non-seasonally adjusted. In addition, annual changes from the same month of the previous year are also reported.

The Department of Statistics, Malaysia gratefully acknowledges the cooperation and contribution rendered by all parties in making this publication a success. Every feedback and suggestion towards improving future reports are highly appreciated.

1 LABOUR FORCE SITUATION CONTINUED TO IMPROVE IN JANUARY 2022 LED BY THE RISE IN EMPLOYMENT WHILE UNEMPLOYED PERSONS TRENDED DOWN

An encouraging economic activity was observed in January 2022 since all states being in Phase 4 of the National Recovery Plan (NRP) including Kelantan and Sarawak which took effect from 3 January 2022. This situation has allowed businesses to continue operating at full capacity with longer business hours. During the month, the vaccination rate of Malaysian population has increased plus majority of the population has received the booster dose. As of 30 January 2022<sup>1</sup>, 50.8 per cent of the adults has received the COVID-19 booster dose while 97.9 per cent of the adults has completed two-dose of the vaccination. Therefore, it gave confidents to the country to open the economy persistently.

Unlike in January last year, the labour market was in a challenging situation as most of the states were in the Movement Control Order (MCO) phase following the rising number of the COVID-19 new cases. During this period, only five essential economic sectors were allowed to operate while inter-state and inter district travel were restricted.

Hence, labour force situation continued to improve in January 2022 as against December 2021, led by the continuous rise in employment while unemployed persons trended down. Similar trend was also observed on the year-on-year comparison with a significant increase in the labour force. Meanwhile, the Leading Index (LI) continuously above 100.0 points and rising in December 2021 indicates a more sanguine momentum on the economic outlook in the months ahead (November 2021: 111.3 points) despite the surge in COVID-19 cases. However, the monthly external trade indicators, both export and import posted a decline of 10.6 per cent (December 2021: 10.4%) and 0.6 per cent (December 2021: -0.4%) respectively.

7 LOOKING AHEAD

A healthier economic outlook is anticipated in the months ahead, reflecting by the LI which continuously above 100.0 points and rising in December 2021. This positive outlook will lead to the increase in the business' activities, thus creating more labour demand in the economy. Following the current health situation which witnessed the new daily cases is on an increasing trend, it may give some challenges to the labour market. In the meantime, the COVID-19 vaccination for children aged five to eleven which was executed from 3 February 2022 is increasing registering 29.3 per cent.
